

World Textile Day

Stitched Stories: Telling Tales in Cloth

FREE admission

Exhibition of stitched, embroidered and woven textiles and artefacts from around the world

Five specialist world textile traders

11.00 am talk

Writing With Threads

Martin Conlan, expert collector, discusses Chinese textile traditions

2.30 pm demonstration

Close Up Sashiko

Susan Briscoe, expert in Japanese textiles, demos this fascinating technique

Refreshments | Disabled access | £2 per activity

Saturday 17 March 2012 10am - 5pm

Minerva Arts Centre, Llanidloes, Wales, SY18 6BY

World Textile Day

With world textile and clothing traders

Textile Techniques

- Fine hand-made textiles from around the world
- Gorgeous, unusual and original clothes
- Beads and silver hill tribe jewellery
- www.textiletechniques.co.uk

The African Fabric Shop

- Hand-made batiks, wax prints and sun prints
- Recycled glass, brass, plastic and paper beads
- Jewellery, kits and patterns, plus fair trade baskets
- www.africanfabric.co.uk

Susan Briscoe Designs

- Japanese kimono and kimono fabrics
- Kits and patterns
- Susan's sashiko and patchwork books
- www.susanbriscoe.co.uk

John Gillow

- World famous author, traveller, collector and lecturer
- Specialising in embroidered, woven and resist-dyed textiles and costume from Asia and Africa
- Unique, vintage and collectable textiles

Martin Conlan – Slow Loris Textiles

- Indigo and vegetable-dyed clothing
- Oriental and tribal clothing and textiles
- Expert on Chinese tribal minorities

More Information

African Fabric Shop	info@africanfabric.co.uk	01484 850188
Susan Briscoe	susan@briscoedesigns.freemove.co.uk	01978 721771
Textile Techniques	enquiries@textiletechniques.co.uk	01588 638712